Summary of reasons for decision:

The text file is an amateur story that details the violent and coercive sexual abuse of a young teenage girl by a man. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes, the use of violence and coercion to compel a person to participate in, or submit to, sexual conduct and the infliction of extreme cruelty. It is intended to arouse those with these sexual interests. An objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as expressed in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) be deemed objectionable. It also reflects the concerns of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from exploitation.
